

MLK DAY

2015 COMMUNITY CALENDAR

The Intercultural Competence and Undoing Racism team encourages the AMBS community to join in regional celebrations honoring Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

ELKHART

January 17 | 2PM
People's History of Criminal Justice, DAPA* and the Beloved Community

*Historic Roosevelt Center
215 E. Indiana Avenue*

Hear local stories about criminal justice and immigration, including the Deferred Action for Parental Accountability; plan for action in conversation groups and celebrate local change agents as part of an award ceremony. Hosted by People's History of Elkhart.

January 18 | 3PM
Worship Service Celebrating the Life of Martin Luther King, Jr.

*St. James AME. Church
122 Martin Luther King Dr.*

Hosted by the Elkhart County Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance

January 19 | 9AM
Indiana Black Expo Martin Luther King Jr. Day Events

March from Civic Plaza to Community Missionary Baptist Church, 228 Chapman Ave

The annual march from the Civic Plaza in downtown Elkhart will go to Community Missionary Baptist Church. A program aimed at youth will follow (approximately. 10 a.m.) and feature a youth choir, praise teams and keynote speaker Rodney Dale, assistant chief of services for the Elkhart Fire Department.

January 19 | 7PM
NAACP–Elkhart County Branch Martin Luther King, Jr. Birthday Celebration

*Canaan Baptist Church
933 Fieldhouse Ave, Elkhart*

Annual celebration of Dr. King's birthday hosted by the local chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Keynote speaker is Dana Carmona, elder at Bethany Chapel Seventh Day Adventist Church in Elkhart.

SOUTH BEND

January 18 | 3PM
A Little Taste of Peace

*St. Adalbert's Parish
2505 W. Grace*

Community members are invited to bring a dessert or finger food to share (no pork) for conversations on "current problems and solutions that can help build the dream of MLK." Hosted by YWCA North Central Indiana.

January 19 | Noon
Annual MLK Day March

Starting at the County City Building

The event will feature remarks from the Mayors of South Bend & Mishawaka, along with words from other elected officials, songs of praise, and corporate prayer.

January 19 | 7PM
Martin Luther King Celebration Concert

Northside Hall Campus Auditorium, 1825 Northside Blvd., South Bend

The choirs of Indiana University South Bend choirs will cellist Sterling Elliott, winner of the Junior Laureate Sphinx Competition for a special performance. Tickets are $35. For details, call 574-232-6343.

GOSHEN

January 19 (All Day)
"Be Brave, Show Grace: Advancing Intercultural Action" Goshen College Study Day

www.goshen.edu/mlk

Speakers include Eware Osayande, Mennonite Central Committee antioppression coordinator and Rev. Kanyere Eaton of Fellowship Covenant Church, Bronx, NY. Other events include a gospel concert, coffeehouse and workshops.