Visual note from Rebecca Tarman: It is the "season of thanks". I feel thankful for my family, my friends, that I have plenty to eat, that I have a home. I know that I am blessed beyond measure. As Christians, however, we are asked to give thanks in all circumstances. What? Am I actually supposed to feel grateful for pandemics, death of loved ones, school shootings, natural disasters? Nope. How can I possibly be asked to feel thanks for any of those things? Maybe that isn't what I'm being asked to do. Perhaps I am being told that I can be thankful that I don't have to understand ALL things. God does. He is the One that is in control and for that I give thanks.

Will the children?*, written by Greg Smucker
